Good afternoon, Mark and Sharon. I know you have received via Fed Ex a hard copy of Public Service Company of New Hampshire's comments in response to the EPA Statement of Substantial New Questions, as well as an all-inclusive thumbdrive. I am also providing, by way of this email, a pdf of our comments, but without the supporting expert reports which are all on the thumbdrive.

We appreciate the opportunity to provide these comments which are supported by the work of an impressive group of experts. Please let me know if we can facilitate your review of this information or if you would like to discuss any related issues. Linda
